

VOLUNTEER LIABILITY & PHOTO RELEASE
ORANGE COUNTY FOOD ACCESS COALITION (OCFAC)

The Harvest Club is a backyard gleaning program of the Orange County Food Access Coalition (OCFAC) which diverts excess fruits and vegetables from the backyards of Orange County to food distribution establishments. The Harvest Club volunteers will harvest produce from the backyards of homeowners. This activity requires good physical health. Tasks performed during this activity include standing on ladders, using fruit picker poles, using clippers, using harvesting bags, and carrying boxes of fruit. Volunteers will use heavy and sharp equipment including clippers, ladders and fruit picker poles during this activity.

By signing below, I agree to be a volunteer for OCFAC's The Harvest Club program and hereby, voluntarily, and without duress executive this release under the following terms:

I unconditionally and forever release, discharge and agree to hold harmless and covenant not to sue the OCFAC, the sponsors, the volunteers, and any of their officers, employees, agents, representatives, successors, and assigns from/for any claims, judgments, costs, damages, losses, expenses and liabilities (under any theory of recovery) relating to any claim for any injury, death, damage or harm of any nature which I may sustain or cause during the event or during my travel to or from the Event, including any claim or action filed by a third party due to my actions in the Event.

I understand that my participation in OCFAC events is purely voluntary, without any expectation of payment or remuneration of any type, and will not be covered under the organization's workers' compensation insurance policy.

I attest that I am physically fit to participate in the above listed activities. Further, I agree to abide by the rules and regulations of the event.

I also give full permission to representatives of OCFAC to capture audio, video, still images or any other personal identification characteristics of me while volunteering for the organization. I also voluntarily, and without compensation, grant OCFAC and/or agents authorized by them an irrevocable license to publish, reproduce, distribute or otherwise use my name and any still or moving photographic or video image, likeness or sound recording of me taken or recorded while participating. I hereby waive any rights to inspect or approve any such publicity, and I release and agree to hold harmless, and covenant not to sue, OCFAC and its employees and agents from any liability to me or other third parties resulting from their use of such publicity.
